NOW COME the Trustees of the OPERATING ENGINEERS LOCAL 324 PENSION FUND, by and through their attorneys, SULLIVAN, WARD, ASHER & PATTON, P.C., and for their Complaint for Withdrawal Liability against Defendant, MORGAN THOMAS, LLC. state as follows:

1. Plaintiffs are the Trustees of the OPERATING ENGINEERS' LOCAL 324 PENSION FUND, (hereinafter referred to as the "FUND"). The

2. Defendant, MORGAN THOMAS, LCC (hereinafter "MORGAN THOMAS"), was at all relevant times a Michigan corporation.

3. MICHIGAN GYPSUM CO. is a Michigan corporation that is, upon information and belief, no longer doing business and which had principal offices in the State of Michigan.

4. The FUND is administered by a joint board of trustees, the Plaintiffs, pursuant to the terms and provisions of its Agreement and Declaration of Trust. The FUND was established pursuant to the Collective Bargaining Agreement entered into between the Operating Engineers' Local 324 Union and certain employers and employer associations, whose members employ members of the Union, and the Fund is required to be administered and maintained in accordance with the provisions of the LMRA, ERISA, and other applicable state and federal statutes.

5. The FUND is a third-party beneficiary to the Collective Bargaining Agreement between MICHIGAN GYPSUM CO. and the Operating Engineers' Local 324 Union.

6. Pursuant to the terms and provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement between MICHIGAN GYPSUM CO. and the Union, MICHIGAN GYPSUM CO. agreed to pay, in addition to wages, employee fringe benefit contributions to the FUND for each employee employed by MICHIGAN GYPSUM CO. and covered by the Agreement.

7. Beginning on or about January, 2015 MICHIGAN GYPSUM CO. completely withdrew from the FUND as set forth in 29 USC §1383.

8. Based on MICHIGAN GYPSUM CO.'s cessation of contributions to the FUND, it incurred withdrawal liability in the amount of $1,963,573.00, plus statutory interest.

9. This is an action for the collection of a judgment that is the result of delinquent withdrawal liability pursuant to 29 USC §1451 and 29 USC §1145. Jurisdiction and venue are proper in this Court pursuant to 29 USC §1451 and 29 USC §1132. Further, this Court has further jurisdiction pursuant to Section 301 of the LMRA, 29 USC §185, this being an action arising out of a Collective Bargaining Agreement between the labor organization and an employer.

10. Pursuant to 29 USC §1381, when an Employer that is signatory to a Collective bargaining agreement ceases to have an obligation to contribute to the Pension Fund, withdrawal liability is assessed.

18. In accordance with 29 USC §1301 and the regulations prescribed under 26 USC §414(c), at all relevant times, MORGAN THOMAS and MICHIGAN GYPSUM CO. were under common control and therefore considered a single employer by virtue of the common ownership and control of the entities, among other things.

19. As a group under common control, MORGAN THOMAS is liable for the withdrawal liability assessment against MICHIGAN GYPSUM CO.

20. Despite the requirements of federal law and the demands made by Plaintiff, MORGAN THOMAS has failed and/or refused to pay the assessment.

21. Pursuant to 29 USC §1451 the failure to pay withdrawal liability as required is to be treated in the same manner as failure to make ongoing contribution payments within the meaning of 29 USC §1145.
